

Women's Day

@ MRCET

In this century, women are more powerful than ever. Women are reaching heights in every field from social, economic to a political and legal field. 8th March is celebrated as International Women's Day worldwide to celebrate the spirit of women empowerment. It is celebrated to show respect, appreciation and love towards their achievements.

The celebration of Women's Day started with the speech of Dr.VSK Reddy, Principal, MRCET. He enlightened the event by adding that "we need to encourage the ladies at our home, our mother, sisters, daughters and wives to pursue their dreams and excel in their career. A wholehearted support boosts their self confidence and will have a transforming impact on the global edge. "

Dr.Murali Krishna Sir, Dean, MRCET added that this day is an occasion to celebrate the achievements of women and inspire commitment to the future challenges that they face in further progress. The roles of both the genders are equally significant to contribute equally to the society.

Dr Kailash Rao, Director, Department of CSE & IT, stated that the women must develop confidence and self-discipline in order to get success in their professional and personal life.

It was organized under the the guidance of Dr. D.Sujatha, HOD, CSE department, MRCET who believes that every person has to know about the responsibilities toward the society. She added that multitasking is special talent to women and they must use it for their career development.

The heads of the departments of ECE, Mechanical, Aeronautical, Mining, IT, and H&S graced the occasion.

This was followed by a wide variety of events, including music, dance, and discussions regarding the achievements of famous personalities.

Understanding a Woman

Women are the real architects of the society. She is a symbol of excellence, intelligence and elegance. Understanding a woman is a mystery and it needs lots of perseverance and knowledge. A woman is the epitome of selfless-love, sacrifice, care and ability to nurture life.

Within her is the power to create, transform and nurture. This ability to nurture life makes woman the most powerful and strongest being. She can play different roles with ease be it that of a beloved wife, obedient daughter, caring mother, adoring sister or a dutiful employee.

Indian Women

From Sita in Ramayana to Kannagi in Silapathikaram to Rani Jhansi are celebrated women whose contribution to social change and awareness had been immense. Even Ramakrishna paramahansa is said to have worshipped his wife. India is the original home of the Mother Goddess.

Women in India have always been honored and respected. India is fortunate to have had many great women - Auvaiyar, Annie Besant, First woman president of Indian national Congress, Neveda, Vijayalakshmi Pandit, First Indian Woman President of UN General Assembly, Mother Teresa, Sarojini Naidu to Indira Gandhi only the second woman Prime Minister in the world, to Kalpana Chawla, Indra Nooyi to Pratibha Patil first woman President of India and many more in the Indian Corporate sector who have proved to be more than a match. Their contribution to society in whole and to Women in Particular is invaluable.

Women in this Era

Women now are more empowered and aware of their rights and the society has accepted their stand. The society is changing and paving way for the growth of the women. UN Secretary General spread the message that women negotiators increase the chances of sustainable peace, and women peacekeepers decrease the chances of sexual exploitation and abuse. A clear road map will be established with benchmarks to achieve gender parity across the system.

The changes can be seen in the fields of education, healthcare, equality and job opportunity. The new decade has seen a marked change in attitude towards women at large. Women have made strides in every field like politics, space exploration, sports, art, and science.

Women Empowerment

Gender equality is central to the 2030 Agenda for sustainable development, the global plan agreed by leaders of all countries to meet the challenges faced. There is no limit to what woman can achieve till they are stopped. Countries that educate women have better economies, healthier citizens, and less violence than those who don't.

When women are leaders or managers, they report more motivated workers and higher productivity. It is proved that women are smart investors and they make better financial decisions than men.

Need for Women's Day Celebration

The celebration of Women's Day started from 1909 in New York city. In 1914 the first international Women's Day was celebrated on March 8 that became a norm worldwide.

This day is celebrated all over the world to recognize the achievements of women in past and present throughout the world. There have been women as ground breakers and trend setters at leadership positions and the world looks up to them as role model.

This day is the need for the hour as it is a time for introspection. This day has been recognized by United Nations General Assembly as a means of recognizing the contribution of women to the society.
