MRCET in association with Courera have invited the great personality and an eminent speaker Dr. Charles Severance who is an American Computer Scientist and Professor in University of Michigan for an expert talk for students of MRCET on 01st March 2024.

Not only Talk, It was a very inspiration for audience, paving the way for our students to explore the vast seas of Python and C programming. Delving deep into the syntax, understanding the essence of software portability, and tracing the monumental influence of C on modern programming. He delivered a talk on Python and the role of Python in current and upcoming domains.

Director of MRCET Dr. Shri VSK Reddy garu, Principal Dr. Shri S Srinivasa Rao garu felicitated the Dr. Charles and address the credits of Dr Charles to all the audience. Students of MRCET are very fortunate to have session by the Dr Charles. At the end of the event few of our Emerging Technologies Students have interacted with Dr. Charles. He has shared various case studies where students can provide solutions for few challenges, can develop applications using python and even other programming languages. He evens discussed about the Coursera Certifications and the value of the same for the students and the impact during the placements, Students felt very happy and learned many things during his talk.

Dr Charles Severance is even author for many text books on programming languages and very popular instructor for many of the Courera Courses like "Python for Everyone". This event marks a milestone in our ongoing quest for knowledge, innovation, and excellence in the world of technology
