

A TALK ON IMPORTANCE OF EMPATHY

Malla Reddy College of Engineering and Technology organized a talk on “how to show empathy” by Dr Anil Ramesh, the director of Shivshivani institute of Management. It was organized on 17th July, 2018. It was carried out with the purpose of enlightening the students to understand others. He urged the students to have empathy when dealing with others. In order to enhance his talk, he showed interesting ads in alphabetic order with emotions. He handed out handouts to students and note down their ideas about each advertisement that was shown to them.

The students loved his talk and shared their ideas to the excited speaker. The teachers also were engaged in the talk. It was a learning experience for both teachers and students.

The Principal felicitated the speaker with a bouquet and a shawl by the end of the talk.
