I _____ was aware that as per the rules of JNTUH (University) and my MRCET College, a minimum of 75% attendance to be eligible to appear for the End Examination (Year & Semester) which is going to be conducted by University or College. I also aware of my current backlogs (Total No of backlogs _____) till present semester.

As per my current ____ No. of backlogs and ____% of attendance, I agree that it's my prime responsibility to maintain the minimum required attendance (>75%), and I agree that I will obey the rules and regulations pertaining to the promotion (subject-credits) to the next semester/year by the university.

I assure you that, now onwards I will be regular to the college and I will clear all my backlogs and I also what so ever may be the reason, neither the CSE-department nor the College and the College management are responsible for my detention (either shortage of credits or not having required attendance for appearing end exams).

In such case, I lost all rights even to question the college authorities, and the college / university have all rights to detain me or can take necessary actions. I undertake and promise to abide by the rules and regulations of the college and university from time to time.
